Comments:

I have been a avid user climbing, skiing and mountain biking in the Custer Gallatin national Forest. I have intimate and personal connections with Hyalite Canyon and natural Bridge State Park. Just to name a few. Maintaining access and usability for climbing, skiing, and biking is extremely important to me in these areas.

In addition to my personal exploits I am a father of two children. It's important to me that thse areas are available for them to enjoy as much as I enjoy them now.
