

Dear Custer Gallatin National Forest:

My name is Devin Mays and I am an engineering student at the University of Minnesota-Twin Cities. Growing up, my dad used to take me camping in the "woods" of Minnesota and Wisconsin. My girlfriend has family in Montana and since the day we met, has told me we need to go visit them in Red Lodge. After finally making the time to come here, we made it to Red Lodge and my first thought when opening the car door was, "Wow, it smells so fresh and amazing here." After hiking the Crazy Mountains and seeing all of the wild life, I was mindblown and had never seen anything like it. I will be back and hope these lands stay protected so I can enjoy it for years to come.
