I have spent my entire life enjoying the wilderness areas in Montana and Wyoming. Most notably the Crazy's, Pryors,, Absaroka Beartooth area and surrounding areas.

My first memories as a kid are in the mountains with my family and my kids first memories are in the mountains. We hike, fish, backpack and camp almost every weekend, including winters.

Protecting these areas is a must!

The following areas must be kept roadless: Lost Water, Big Pryor, Punch Bowl, and Bear Canyon. The current Wilderness areas; Absaroka Beartooth area, and additionally Dome Mountain, Emigrant Peak, Chico Peak, Woodbine, East Rosebud to Stillwater, and Red Lodge Creek should remain wilderness.

Allowing only foot and horse traffic will keep these areas pristine and available to the generations to come.

Thank you,

Kirk
