Comments:

Last year was the first time I had the privilege to ride snowmobile in the Custer Gallatin National forest. It provided my friends and I some great terrain and beautiful views. We have some great memories and pictures from that trip. For us riding snowmobile is about connecting with the rugged beauty of the mountains, not found in any other Motorsport. Please reconsider the revision to give ample space for snowmobilers to continue experiencing nature in a way nothing else can provide. Thank you
